Your spies scouted their weapons.

You designed defenses to thwart those weapons. Suddenly, the warning systems have been triggered. Now it is up to your lightning reflexes to save your nation from a devastating enemy attack. React fast enough and you will save millions of lives. Missiles, smart bombs, killer satellites and other terrifying superweapons are homing in on your cities. Grab your trusty mouse — target the approaching infidels — intercept and destroy them with your defensive missiles. Miss your mark, and civilization will crumble before your eyes.

Tough challenge? You bet it is. But all you need is your mouse. And, of course, this disk.

WARNING: This game is all action and great graphics — no words!

The MINDSPORTS Philosophy: MINDSPORTS games play better because we design them especially for the computer you own.
